

INDICATIVE
UNIT WEIGHT
280 g

See on our website

- Small pressure support angle to be built against or in the items or templates
- Max. adherence strength: 133kg (150lb)
- The magnet holds round or flat surfaces made of steel , in order to adapt to the items to be held
- Does not need power supply: the magnetic block gets activated by pushing and turning the button
- Made for woodworking, welding or assembling etc...

- You can make item made of wood or metal in which you put the Magjig 50 (drill at 40mm) to fasten them against the items to be shapes,

without any hole

- You can also use it as a block by magnetizing it directly to the work table against the item
- You can use the screw holes that are already on the Magjig to fasten it to the items

The uses of this little magnetic tool are endless!

The use of several Magjig on the same workbench allows the total fastening of a piece of furniture, table, metal piece to be welded...

The use of at least 2 Magjig is advised to avoid the revolving

Dimensions :

Length: 67.1mm

Width: 31mm

Height: 52mm

Screw hole diameter: 4.2mm